1. What is Indian Kanoon?

ANS: It is a free, privately-owned search engine that integrates Indian court judgments with central and state acts to make legal research accessible.

2. Is it a government website?

ANS: No, it is an independent platform that indexes public legal data sourced from official government and court portals.

3. Why was it started?

ANS: The site was created to break complex laws into readable sections and link them directly to relevant court interpretations for easier understanding.

4. How do I search for a case or law?

ANS: You can use the main search bar for keywords and sections, or use "Advanced Search" to filter results by court, date, or judge.

5. What is Prism AI?

ANS: Prism is an AI-powered assistant that summarizes judgments, identifies key legal points, and helps find similar cases efficiently.

6. Does it offer premium features?

ANS: Yes, a premium subscription provides an ad-free experience, PDF downloads, advanced filtering, and enhanced AI capabilities.

7. Is there an API available?

ANS: Yes, Indian Kanoon offers API services for developers and researchers to integrate its legal database into external applications.

8. Why is my court case appearing on the site?

ANS: Court judgments are public records, and the site indexes them to ensure transparency and public access to judicial information.

9. Can I have a case removed?

ANS: Removal is generally not permitted for public records unless there is a specific court order or it involves highly sensitive protected matters.

10. How do I cite a document?

ANS: You can use the unique URL provided by the site or refer to the official citations (like AIR or SCC) listed within the text.

11. Is there a mobile app?

ANS: Yes, an official Indian Kanoon app is available for mobile devices to allow for legal searching on the go.

12. Is the information legally binding?

ANS: No, the content is for informational purposes only; official certified copies from the court should be used for legal proceedings.

13. How can I stay updated?

ANS: Users can follow the official blog or join the Indian Kanoon WhatsApp channel for the latest legal insights and updates.

14. What is the Indian Kanoon API?

ANS: It is a programming interface that allows developers to programmatically search and retrieve Indian court judgments, laws, and statutes for use in their own applications.

15. Is the API free to use?

ANS: No, the API is a paid service that requires a subscription, unlike the main website which is free for general browsing and searching.

16. How do I get access to the API?

ANS: You must create an account on the Indian Kanoon website and request an API token, which is used to authenticate your requests and track usage.

17. What kind of data can I retrieve via the API?

ANS: The API provides access to the full text of judgments from the Supreme Court, High Courts, and various tribunals, as well as Central and State Acts.

18. In what format does the API return data?

ANS: The API returns data in JSON format, making it easy to integrate with modern web and mobile applications for parsing legal text.

19. Is there a rate limit for API requests?

ANS: Yes, depending on your subscription tier, there are specific limits on the number of requests you can make per minute or per day to ensure system stability.

20. Can I download PDF copies of judgments through the API?

ANS: The API primarily provides structured text data; however, certain tiers may allow for the retrieval of links to generated PDF versions of the documents.

21. Does the API support advanced search filters?

ANS: Yes, it allows you to filter results by specific courts, date ranges, and document types, similar to the advanced search functionality on the main website.

22. Can I use the API for commercial purposes?

ANS: Yes, the API is specifically designed for commercial entities, legal tech startups, and researchers who need to process legal data at scale.

23. Where can I find the technical documentation?

ANS: Comprehensive documentation detailing endpoints, request parameters, and response structures is available directly at the api.indiankanoon.org portal.

24. What is the purpose of the Supreme Court of India Judgments portal?

ANS: This official portal serves as a public repository for all judgments and orders delivered by the Supreme Court of India. It allows citizens and legal professionals to access authentic, verified copies of judicial decisions for transparency. Users can view both recent rulings and historical archives dating back to the inception of the Court.

25. How can I search for a specific judgment on this website?

ANS: The site offers multiple search criteria including Case Number, Diary Number, Judgment Date, or the Judge's Name. Users can also search by Petitioner or Respondent names to locate specific litigation records quickly. The interface is designed to provide direct access to the official PDF records once the search parameters are met.

26. What is the difference between "Judgments" and "Daily Orders" on this site?

ANS: Judgments refer to the final dispositive decisions made by the Court that conclude a legal dispute or clarify a law. Daily Orders are records of the proceedings and interim directions issued by the bench during the pendency of a case. Both are accessible through the portal, but they are categorized separately to help users distinguish between final and interim rulings.

27. Are the documents downloaded from this site considered official for legal use?

ANS: Yes, the judgments provided here are official records; however, they are often marked as "non-reportable" or "reportable" based on their legal significance. For formal submission in lower courts, these digital copies are widely accepted, though certified physical copies remain the gold standard. The portal ensures that the text matches the signed versions delivered by the Hon'ble Judges in open court.

28. Is there a cost associated with accessing judgments on this portal?

ANS: Accessing, viewing, and downloading judgments and orders from the official Supreme Court website is entirely free of charge. The Government of India maintains this as a public service to ensure the "Right to Information" and easy access to justice. There is no requirement to create a paid account or subscription to use the search functionalities provided on the page.

29. Can I find judgments from other High Courts or District Courts here?

ANS: No, this specific portal is dedicated exclusively to the decisions and orders issued by the Supreme Court of India. For High Court or District Court rulings, users must visit the respective court websites or the National Judicial Data Grid. This site functions solely as the highest judicial repository for the apex court of the country.

30. What is the purpose of the Madras High Court website?

ANS: It serves as the official digital portal for the High Court of Judicature at Madras and its Madurai Bench. The site provides access to the daily cause list, case status, court orders, and administrative notifications for the public.

31. How can I check the status of my case on this portal?
